

Mr. Vineet Seth
Chief Finance Officer

Mr. Vineet Seth heads Health System Transformation Platform as Chief Financial Officer. An MBA in Finance from The Trinity College & University and a Certified CSR Professional from the ICSI, he combines practical experience, integrity and corporate expertise to advance HSTP's mission of enabling systems transformation towards providing equitable access to good quality and affordable health services for improved health outcomes.

In recognition of his contribution in finance, Mr Seth has won CFONext-100 award in 2019. He has served CRY-Child Rights and You as Head of Finance for its Eastern Regional Office for more than a decade. With an overall experience of more than 25 years, leveraging his extensive experience and expertise in financial management, accounting, statutory compliance, process development, he has played a crucial role in ensuring the smooth functioning of the financial activities of the organization.