

Sunil Nandraj
Advisor

Sunil Nandraj is a advisor providing strategic oversight and guidance for Health System Governance projects at Health System Transformation Platform, encompassing areas such as regulation, accountability, transparency, and related fields. He offers invaluable expertise, combining his extensive background, deep understanding of health systems, and a passion for driving positive change in the health sector.

He has been working in the health & development sector in various capacities for the past three decades with civil society, central and state governments, and the World Health Organization in various capacities. He has been an Advisor to the Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Govt. of India, Department of Health, Govt. of Delhi, Kerala, Karnataka and Maharashtra. Served with World Health Organisation, as cluster head for Health Systems Development in the WHO-India Country Office. Throughout his experience, he has focused on Health Systems, with a focus on Policy & Delivery, Financing, Human Resources, Governance & Regulation, Information Systems, Quality of Care, Women's Health, Health Research, Trade Agreements & Health, and Drugs & Pharmaceuticals, among other areas. He has served as a technical resource in numerous national committees and published in esteemed national and international journals, that address health systems development.

Sunil currently lives in Bombay, and spends time playing at the intersection of enjoying life, travelling, reading, writing, teaching, farming, documenting outdoor spaces, delving into spirituality and getting involved in initiatives that make a difference to the lives of people.