

Sanjeev Kumar
Specialist- Research

Sanjeev supports Health System Transformation Platform in designing solutions for building Primary health care providers' competencies. Sanjeev is trained in public health, Population Studies, and Health Administration, with more than eleven years of experience in Quality Assurance-process Improvement, Implementation Research, and Health System Strengthening Programs. Sanjeev initiated his career in DFID Funded SWASTH Program as Quality Assurance Consultant based in Bihar. Equipped with implementation learnings, he joined Save the Children as Innovation Co-ordinator, for state of Bihar and supported the Saving Newborn Lives Alliance, funded by Bill and Melinda. This was followed by a stint in based in Dhaka, Bangladesh as a WHO Tropical Disease Research fellow. Post Completing of his fellowship in 2017, he returned to India and Joined ACCESS Health as a Quality and Process Improvement lead based in Andhra Pradesh. Promoted to Program Manager he worked with multiple programs like; Manyata-A Quality Improvement Program in Private Sector, Public Financial Management System, and Public and Private Sector Engagement.