

Dr Gulfam Ahmed Hashmi

Deputy Director - Health Service Delivery & Human Resources for Health

Dr Gulfam Ahmed Hashmi is a medical doctor with an M.D. in Community Medicine. He comes with experience in medical education, research and administration fields with 17 years of experience in Programme implementation, Policy and Advocacy, Project leadership, Private Public partnership, Digital Health, Health Innovations, programmatic strategy development and implementation of community and facility-based programs in Health and Nutrition. He has led various flagship health and nutrition programs of the Government of India, WHO, UNICEF, USAID, BMGF, PATH and WISH. Dr Hashmi led the implementation of ANMOL (ANM Online), an Android tablet-based digital initiative for ANMs. He has led the establishment of technology-enabled health and Wellness Centers in Inspirational districts and the demonstration of Telemedicine and Tele-trainings in rural HWCs in aspirational districts of UP. Supported development and implementation of nutritional support initiative of the Government of U.P for Tuberculosis patients. Demonstration of digital adherence technology for adherence monitoring of TB patients and support to Sub National certification for TB elimination.

Currently, he is working as Deputy Director, Health Service Delivery and Human Resources for Health (HRH) and state Nodal for Chhattisgarh and Madhya Pradesh. Gulfam has been a team Lead, U.P for PATH Health System Strengthening and Tuberculosis. He also served as a Health Specialist (NOC) Policy and Planning UNICEF, India Country Office and as a Public Health consultant to the office of the Health and Family Welfare Minister, Government of India and as Coordinator, National Resource Unit, RMNCH+A, Ministry of Health, and Family Welfare (MOHFW), Government of India. He has published various papers in journals of international repute.